Foreword .............................................................................................................................. vii
  Linda C. Tillman
Acknowledgments .............................................................................................................. ix

PART I: LEADERSHIP WITHIN COMMUNITIES AND FAMILIES

1 Introducing Black Women in Leadership:
  Their Historical and Contemporary Contributions ....................................................... 3
  Dannielle Joy Davis and Cassandra Chaney

2 Black Women’s Legislative Influence ................................................................. 7
  Nadia Brown

3 Black Women and Leadership in the Church ......................................................... 25
  Kaye Thompson-Rogers

4 African American Mothers Leading Daughters ...................................................... 42
  Virginia Cook Tickles

PART II: LEADERSHIP IN EDUCATION

5 Each One, Teach One: Black Women’s Historical Contributions to Education . . . 55
  Ezella McPherson

6 Black Women’s Historical Leadership in African American Home Education . . . 69
  Rhonda Hudson and Dannielle Joy Davis

7 Black Women as Educational Leaders:
  Emotional Neutrality and Psychic Duality ................................................................. 74
  Talia R. Esnard, Laurette Bristol, and Launcelot Brown

8 Sisters of the Academy: Cultivating Leadership and Collaboration among Black Women .................................................................................................... 91
  Dannielle Joy Davis, Virginia Cook Tickles, Montressa Washington, Ifeoma Amah, and Monika Hudson

9 The Leadership of First Lady Michelle Obama:
  Perceptions of Black Female College Students ...................................................... 99
  Cassandra Chaney
10 “If They Don’t Make a Place for Us, We Should Make a Place for Ourselves”:
African American Women and Nursing at State Community College ........ 124
Ishwanzya D. Rivers

11 Higher Education Leadership: One Black Woman’s Journey ............. 144
Menah Pratt-Clarke

PART III: LEADERSHIP AND SELF-CARE AMONG BLACK WOMEN

12 The “Double Outsider’s” Challenges to Professional Success:
Implications for Black Women’s Leadership .......................... 163
Keisha Edwards Tassie and Sonja M. Brown Givens

13 Working Towards Self-care: The Role of Vicarious Traumatization
in Black Female Mental Health Professionals .......................... 176
Nakisha A. Scott

14 Honoring the Lateness of the Day: Opportunistic Shifts in the Personal Leadership Sojourns of African American Professional Women at Second Adulthood ........................................... 187
S. Alease Ferguson and Toni C. King

15 Overcoming Gender and Race Issues in the Workplace .................. 209
Jacqueline Fancher Marn

About the Editors .......................................................... 235