CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Acknowledgments</th>
<th>vii</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>List of Abbreviations</td>
<td>ix</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Maps</td>
<td>xi</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Introduction: Contextualizing Territorial Revisionism in East Central Europe: Goals, Expectations, and Practices
Marina Cattaruzza and Dieter Langewiesche

1 The Worst of Friends: Germany’s Allies in East Central Europe—Struggles for Regional Dominance and Ethnic Cleansing, 1938–1945
István Deák

The Role of Minorities

2 Minorities into Majorities: Sudeten German and Transylvanian Hungarian Political Elites as Actors of Revisionism before and during the Second World War
Franz Sz. Horváth

3 The Ethnic Policy of the Third Reich toward the Volksdeutsche in Central and Eastern Europe
Norbert Spannenberger

Revisionism as a Driving Force

4 Revisionism in Regional Perspective
Holly Case
Contents

5 Hungarian Revisionism in Thought and Action, 1920—1941: Plans, Expectations, Reality
_Ignác Romsics_
92

6 Bulgarian Territorial Revisionism and Bulgaria’s Rapprochement with the Third Reich
_Elżbieta Znamierowska-Rakk_
102

Practices of Revisionism

7 Politics and Military Action of Ethnic Ukrainian Collaboration for the “New European Order”
_Frank Grelka_
126

8 Civil War in Occupied Territories: The Polish–Ukrainian Conflict during the Interwar Years and the Second World War
_Frank Golczewski_
141

9 The Internal Macedonian Revolutionary Organization and Bulgarian Revisionism, 1923–1944
_Stefan Troebst_
161

10 Romania in the Second World War: Revisionist out of Necessity
_Mariana Hausleitner_
173

Notes on Contributors
Select Bibliography
Index