Contents

List of Figures ix
Preface x
Acknowledgements xviii
Notes on Contributors xix
List of Abbreviations xxii

1 Crossing the North Sea – is there a British Approach to German History?
   Geoff Eley 1

Part I The Local Nation

2 Cologne Cathedral as an International Monument
   Astrid Swenson 29

3 Germany’s Boundaries and the Politics of Defeat: Heligoland, 1918–1933
   Jan Rüger 52

4 Cosmopolitan Highlanders: Region and Nation in Anglo-German Encounters in the Himalayas, 1903–1945
   Tom Neuhaus 68

5 The ‘Cleansing’ of Culture in Germany’s Lost East after the Second World War
   Hugo Service 82

6 Traitors, Heroes, Martyrs, Victims? Veterans of Nazi ‘Forced Conscription’ from Alsace and Moselle
   Elizabeth Vlossak 100

Part II Culture and Society

7 The Age of Assassination: Monarchy and Nation in Nineteenth-Century Europe
   Rachel G. Hoffman 121
Contents

8 Finding the Female Self: Women’s Autonomy, Marriage and Social Change in Nineteenth-Century Germany 142
Lynn Abrams

9 Beasts in Human Clothing? Pimps, Moral Panics and the German Underworld 158
Victoria Harris

10 Myth-making in Hitler’s Shadow: The Transfiguration of Emil Nolde after 1945 177
Bernhard Fulda

11 East German Perspectives on Continuity and Change across the Caesura of 1989 195
Hester Vaizey

Part III The Peculiarities of Nazi Germany

12 Justifying Genocide in Weimar Germany: The Armenian Genocide, German Nationalists and Assassinated Young Turks, 1919–1923 215
Stefan Ihrig

13 Interwar Britain and German Racial Theory 233
Bradley W. Hart

14 The Cultivation of Mussolini’s Image in Weimar and Nazi Germany 247
Christian Goeschel

15 Dictators for Sale: The Commercialization of the Duce and the Führer in Fascist Italy and Nazi Germany 267
Bianca Gaudenzi

16 Veiled Survivors: Jews, Roma and Muslims in the Years of the Holocaust 288
David Motadel

17 The Nazi Concentration Camps in International Context: Comparisons and Connections 306
Nikolaus Wachsmann

Index 326