

CONTENT

EN_Summary.....	v
DE_Zusammenfassung	vii
Acknowledgments.....	ix
Preface	x
A Introduction.....	1
B Research interests and design	10
B 1 Research interests	10
B 2 Research design.....	12
C Developing a model for GI operationalisation.....	17
C 1 Exploring conceptual foundations	17
C 1.1 Principles and characteristics of Green Infrastructure	17
C 1.1.1 GI – Historic evolution	18
C 1.1.2 What is GI, and what not?	31
C 1.1.3 GI – A framework for further analysis	45
C 1.2 Defining equality, inequality and justice.....	50
C 1.2.1 Dimensions of equality/inequality and justice/injustice.....	54
C 1.2.2 GI – Relevant theories and concepts for a just access.....	78
C 1.3 Concepts and approaches in developing and planning urban space.....	90
C 1.3.1 Urban development – an issue of forces.....	90
C 1.3.2 The role of environmental policy.....	94
C 1.3.3 The planning of the ought-to-be	100
C 1.3.4 GI – Development and planning approaches	114
C 2 The conceptual and action model for GI operationalisation	123
C 2.1 The model's conceptual entry-point and ethical baseline.....	123
C 2.2 The model's approach to GI's functional and physical shaping.....	128
C 2.3 The model's approach to the shaping of governance capabilities	131
C 2.4 Framing a strategic approach to GI operationalisation	137
D Appraising the model for GI operationalisation.....	140
D 1 Appraisal methodology	140
D 1.1 The appraisal framework.....	140
D 1.2 The appraisal design	143
D 1.2.1 The selection of case studies.....	143
D 1.2.2 The approach to the case studies.....	147
D 1.2.3 Data and knowledge collection	149

D 1.2.4	Data and knowledge analysis	156
D 2	Appraisal findings	159
D 2.1	An introduction to the case studies.....	159
D 2.1.1	A first description of important baselines	159
D 2.1.2	Key characteristics of survey respondents	171
D 2.2	Lessons learnt from Vienna, including a cross-check with Munich	178
D 2.2.1	The relevance of conditions and needs.....	179
D 2.2.2	The coherence of policy interventions	206
D 2.2.3	The adequacy of policy interventions.....	221
D 2.2.4	The significance of outcomes	250
E	Discussion.....	265
E 1	Operationalising GI for a just access to ecological space	265
E 2	Outlook.....	273
F	Annex.....	276
	References	276
	References of written interview records/ interview partners.....	307
	Illustrations	308
	Glossary.....	312
	Ethical doctrines – methodical aspects and contents	315
	Survey questionnaire to the public administration of Munich (German)	317
	Survey questionnaire to individuals of the general public of Vienna (German).....	331