

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Ruth Leiserowitz / Gintarė Malinauskaitė / Hektoras Vitkus

Introduction: War crimes trials, media and memory after World War II	9
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---

I. REMAINING BEYOND THE PUBLIC: THE EARLY POST-WAR TRIALS IN GERMANY

Edith Raim

East and West German prosecutions of Nazi crimes and public reactions	41
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

II. MAKING JUSTICE PUBLIC IN THE COMMUNIST REGIMES: THE SOVIET UNION, EAST GERMANY AND POLAND

Zigmas Vitkus

Paneriai: Mass executions in the mirror of the Soviet Extraordinary State Commission and the press (1944–1945)	69
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Gintarė Malinauskaitė

Soviet (in)justice goes abroad: The 1964 Klaipėda war crimes trial and media warfare in the USA	95
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Łukasz Jasiński

Polish and East German press coverage of war crimes trials during the 1950s and 1960s: An attempt at a comparison	129
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Jakub Muchowski

- The Eichmann trial and Polish memory cultures
in the 1960s 153

III. STAGING JUSTICE: DRAMATURGY OF WAR CRIMES TRIALS IN EAST GERMANY, POLAND AND THE SOVIET UNION

Annette Weinke

- Defensive visual justice: Strategies of mediatization
in early Nazi trials in East Germany 175

Justas Stončius

- Allusions to the Holocaust: The construction of Soviet Lithuanian documentary films about war crimes trials .. 197

Katja S. Baumgärtner

- The female gaze and agency in court: Wacław Florkowski's
and Danuta Brzosko-Mędryk's feature film
Zagrożenie [Danger], Poland 1976 217

IV. THE INTERSECTION OF POLITICS, LAW, MEMORY AND THE MEDIA: INTERNATIONALIZATION OF WAR CRIMES TRIALS IN YUGOSLAVIA, WEST GERMANY, POLAND, TURKEY AND LITHUANIA

Klara Muhle-Szumski

- Draža Mihailović before the tribunal:
Entangled media narratives and internal discussions
in Yugoslavia, Great Britain and the US 241

Paulina Gulińska-Jurgiel

- Coming to terms with NS crimes:
A case study on media reports and real experience
from Poland and West Germany in the 1960s 263

Hülya Tuncor

- Creating a cosmopolitan memory?
The reception of the Eichmann trial in the Turkish print media in the 1960s 279

Anne Klein

Historical justice through democratic action: French Holocaust survivors and the Lischka trial in Cologne (1971–1980)	293
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Vygantas Vareikis

The course of the prosecution and judgment of Aleksandras Lileikis in Lithuania	319
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Contributors	338
--------------------	-----

Abbreviations	342
---------------------	-----

Index of Persons	345
------------------------	-----