Contents

Foreword ............................................................................................................. 7
List of Tables ....................................................................................................... 11
List of Contributors .......................................................................................... 15

1 Providing Care for Growing Needs: The Context for Long-term Care in Central and South Eastern Europe ......................................................... 17
   August Österle, Lisa Mittendrein, Katharina Meichenitsch

2 Long-term Care in Austria: Between Family Orientation, Cash for Care and Service Provision ................................................................. 41
   August Österle, Katharina Meichenitsch, Lisa Mittendrein

3 Long-term Care for Older People in Croatia ...................................................... 67
   Silvia Rusac, Ana Štambuk, Nino Žganec, Marina Ajduković

4 Long-term Care in the Czech Republic: On the Threshold of Reform ........... 81
   Jana Barvíková

5 Long-term Care in Hungary: Between Health and Social Care ..................... 105
   Lászlo Gulácsi, Katalin Érsek, Kinga Mészáros

6 Long-term Care Policy in Romania: A Hesitant Response to a Pressing Need ................................................................. 123
   Livia Popescu

7 Ageing and the Welfare Mix Policy in Serbia ................................................... 151
   Marija Kolin

8 Long-term Care in the Slovak Republic ........................................................... 175
   Helena Kuvíková, Jana Štrangfeldová, Lenka Topinková, Katarina Vidličková

9 Needs and Beads: The Emerging Long-term Care System of Slovenia .......... 189
   Vito Flaker, Barbara Kresal, Mateja Nagode

10 A Comparative Analysis of Long-term Care in Central and South Eastern Europe ................................................................. 213
   August Österle